	19-12-2005 Shri I.S. Sahu, counsel for the petitioner. Shri S.P. Kale, Govt. Advocate for the State. Heard. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is entitled for promotion to the post of Lecturer but the same has not been granted. Notice for demand of justice has not been served. Learned counsel submits that the petitioner submits representations before the respondent authorities on 7-10-2000 and 11-9-2001, but the same have not been considered. Learned counsel for the State submits that the petitioner may be directed to make a representation afresh before the concerned competent authority and if such representation is made, the same shall be considered and decided. Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within a period of three weeks, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within a period of three months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of. Certified copy as per rules.
